

Holiday in the Pines Holly Taylor

As the car heads due North to the cabin for the holidays, my mind wanders back to Christmases past. After a fun long drive of telling stories and stopping at our favorite place for a hot chocolate and a treat, we arrive, grab all the decorations and get to work. Sometimes there are mountains of snow and we put on the snowshoes to clear a path, some years we can just dust off the adirondacks and curl up with a blanket and a bonfire.

It is always a pleasure to be back at the cabin, to see fresh snow, smell the pines, and see all the wildlife. It is tradition that we build the snowman and gather pinecones and boughs for our holiday centerpiece. We tried to capture our experience in the panel, showing you all of our visions of Holiday In The Pines. 🌲
