Sweetwater Patterns — SW

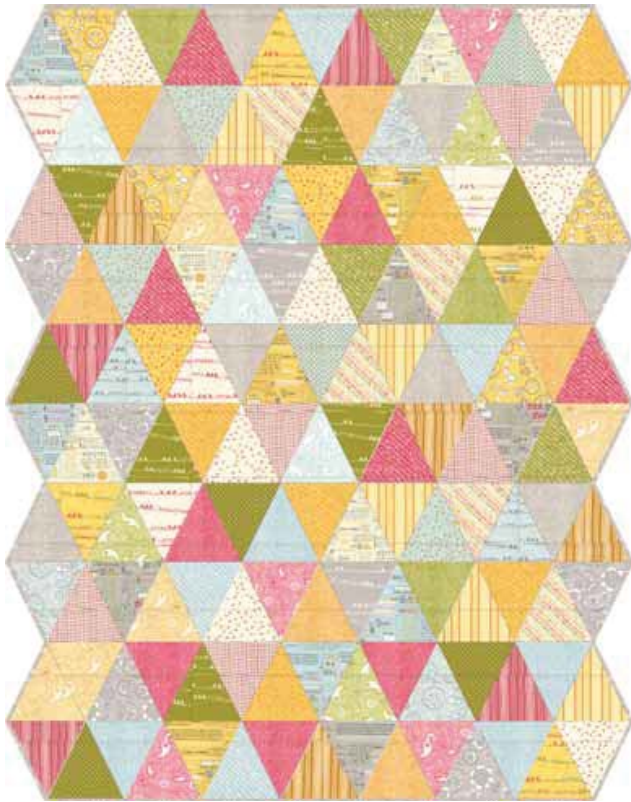

Remember when we actually wrote things down with a pencil and paper? Today there is an app for all of that. Noteworthy was inspired by that pencil and paper time. I used to love doodling in school and my notes often looked like the "Bucket List" print- with random lists, stars and flowers all over the page.

Our family phone book was covered with doodles- much like the prints from this line.

Noteworthy was also inspired by the important things in life, and we hope the "Bucket List" print will inspire you to think about your own bucket list - about what is important to you. The color scheme of this collection is one of our favorites. It's fresh, happy and makes us long for summer. Just like when I was doodling in high school- I was always longing for summer!
