

Hope's Journey 1830-1860

Betsy Chutchian

Inspired by an antique Wild Goose Chase quilt in my collection, the fabrics date from early the early 1800s to around 1850. The colorful blocks are framed by wide cheddar sashing that immediately called to mind the Gold Rush era of the late 1840's, with all the hopes, dreams and hard work the lure of riches encompassed. Building on that one aspect of our history, Hope is the name of every woman who ventured forth, leaving her home for a dream of a better life. Whether she went alone, followed a husband or father, Hope's Journey comes alive to celebrate the pioneer spirit of those women. With adventure, courage and perseverance, these women faced every challenge on their journey to the unknown.
